

By Tracey

Hi my name is Tracey I would like to start by introducing myself. I have been in a wheelchair all my life and have done various jobs. When Erin approached me about her idea of doing up an information sheet of what is on in things you can do or go see I said yes would love to help. There is nothing more annoying than being frustrated in hearing someone telling you that the place is accessible only to find out when you get there that it is not and having the feeling of disappointment. So that's where I come in I do the calling asking the hard questions and taking some of that frustration away. Now as there are millions of conditions out there I would still advise if you have something out of the norm you may require then it would be best to call and check for your particular need.

Canine Helpers Dinner Dance has been released 9th June to be held at Pine Rivers Bowls Club. This is our major fundraiser for the year ticket includes Dinner & Live Band: Party Club with possibly one of our own singing as well and I must say she has an amazing voice. Canine Helpers is a non-profit community organisation that provides assistance to people with a disability through the training and placement of different types of assistance dogs.

Cost $40

Spend Good Friday, 30 March by the ocean at the annual Redcliffe Festival of Sails and enjoy the best view of Australia's second largest yacht race, The Brisbane to Gladstone, as they sail past the stunning Redcliffe Peninsula.

The Redcliffe Festival of Sails also welcomes the Queen's Baton Relay as it makes it's way through Redcliffe on its journey to the Commonwealth Games.

This event is free to attend and includes stacks of entertainment for the whole family including the traditional Sky Diving Easter Bunny, rides and amusements and giant Easter egg hunt. Redcliffe Festival of Sails will feature three stages dedicated to live music and children's entertainment.

The event will also feature an awesome Kids Zone with children's workshops and activities. The beach will come to life with sand sculpting and street art installations. Families can also roam through the hundreds of market stalls on display.
